UNION OF BRITISH COLUMBIA INDIAN CHIEFS
“Constitution Express: Ottawa ’80, London ’81,” April 1981.

THE COVER IMAGE is taken from one of the Union of British Columbia Indian Chiefs’ iconic Constitution Express bulletins – poster-sized information sheets distributed to communities throughout British Columbia. These bulletins would include information about patriation and what UBCIC was doing to stop it, including its legal and political arguments as well as logistical information about how to join or support the first Constitution Express to Ottawa and the second Constitution Express to Europe. This image – included on the bulletin distributed in April 1981 – promotes both Expresses: “Ottawa ’80” and “London ’81.” Image courtesy of UBCIC.
